RESPONDENT                                      )

Respondent had a circumstance where she was unable to meet as required with her supervisor due to various scheduling conflicts. Respondent was at all times in good faith attempting to comply with the requirements of the consent order. In order for Respondent to successfully complete the full term of supervision required by the consent order, the Board, for good cause shown, extends the term of the original consent order in this case to December 31, 2010. Respondent must comply with the 2 hours of supervision per month requirement of the original consent order through that date. The original consent order remains in effect otherwise.

This the 10th day of December, 2010.

A complaint having been filed against Respondent with the North Carolina Board of Licensed Professional Counselors, and after investigation, the Board having found probable cause to believe that respondent had violated a provision of the North Carolina Licensed Professional Counselor’s Act, Chapter 90 Article 24 of the North Carolina General Statues. Although she does not admit to any violation of Statute or Code of Ethics, Respondent has agreed that it would serve the ends of justice that a Consent Order be entered which will resolve this matter without a formal hearing, and to that end, with the consent of all parties, the Board hereby enters the following Order:

IT IS, BY CONSENT, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED;

1. Respondent can continue to provide counseling services, but must do so under the following terms and conditions:

   A. Prior to engaging in the active practice of counseling, Respondent will locate a supervisor who meets the Board’s requirements for an approved supervisor, and will submit the same to the Board for approval.

   B. Once approved, Respondent will receive 2 hours of supervision per month while engaged in the practice of counseling. Respondent intends to only work part time at this point. Respondent will notify the Board if she ceases her practice of counseling. Respondent will be under this active supervision for 12 months total.

C. The supervisor will report the supervision to the Board every other month.

D. The supervisor will emphasize the importance of professional boundaries.

2. Respondent shall maintain the needed continuing education hours for license renewal, and if her license renewal comes up within the period of supervision, she will notify the Board of her status of being under supervision with her renewal packet for review by the Board.

3. Respondent will have complied with this order once the final supervision report is received. Until that time, her licensure status will be under supervision.

This 4th day of September 2009.
